To get you thinking.....

What do you already know about the MYP....

What are people saying about the MYP?

"The MYP's thoughtful, multi-faceted curriculum framework aligns with our school's core values: international mindedness, academic integrity and service. In the wider community, the MYP helps to sustain inquiry into our common humanity and shared guardianship of the planet."

Dr. Aloha Lavina, MYP Principal, Concordian International School, Bangkok, Thailand

"... It allows students to explore their passions and do something powerful with it. It involves third or fourth level thinking where students really have to go beyond the surface and dig deeper into more abstract and conceptual thinking. ..."

Dr Vincent Chian, Principal of Fairview International School, Malaysia

"... Our parents are excited because students are becoming well-rounded and they're getting that classic liberal arts-minded education..."

Dr. John Waller, director, secondary curriculum and special programs, Marietta City Schools, USA.

Why the Middle Years programme?

Parents who want the best possible education for their children choose the MYP because it includes:

- rigorous learning objectives
- a student-centred approach to teaching
- international perspectives
- concern for the whole child
- sustained teaching and learning in more than one language
- a focus on learning how to learn
- the development of flexible thinking that prepares students to evaluate information critically and apply knowledge in complex, unfamiliar situations.

Key Concepts

A concept is a big idea—a principle or conception that is enduring, the significance of which goes beyond aspects such as particular origins, subject matter or place in time (Wiggins and McTighe 1998).

Communities

Communities are groups that exist in proximity defined by space, time or relationship. Communities include, for example, groups of people sharing particular characteristics, beliefs or values as well as groups of interdependent organisms living together in a specific habitat.

Time, space and place

The intrinsically linked concept of time, space and place refers to the absolute or relative position of people, objects and ideas. Time, place and space focuses on how we construct and use our understanding of location ("where" and "when").

Identity

Identity is the state or fact of being the same. It refers to the particular features that define individuals, groups, things, eras, places, symbols and styles. Identity can be observed, or it can be constructed, asserted and shaped by external and internal influences.

Creativity

Creativity is the process of generating novel ideas and considering existing ideas from new perspectives. Creativity includes the ability to recognize the value of ideas when developing innovative responses to problems; it may be evident in process as well as outcomes, products or solutions.

Aesthetics

Aesthetics deals with the characteristics, creation, meaning and perception of beauty and taste. The study of aesthetics develops skills for the critical appreciation and analysis of art, culture and nature.

Systems

Systems are sets of interacting or interdependent components. Systems provide structure and order in human, natural and built environments. Systems can be static or dynamic, simple or complex.

Culture

Culture encompasses a range of learned and shared beliefs, values, interests, attitudes, products, ways of knowing and patterns of behaviour created by human communities. The concept of culture is dynamic and organic.

Change

Change is a conversion, transformation or movement from one form, state or value to another. Inquiry into the concept of change involves understanding and evaluating causes, processes and consequences.

Relationships

Relationships are the connections and associations between properties, objects, people and ideas—including the human community's connections with the world in which we live.

Global interactions

Global interactions, as a concept, focuses on the connections among individuals and communities, as well as their relationships with built and natural environments, from the perspective of the world as a whole.

Communication

Communication is the exchange or transfer of signals, facts, ideas and symbols. It requires a sender, a message and an intended receiver. Communication involves the activity of conveying information or meaning. Effective communication requires a common "language" (which may be written, spoken or non-verbal).

Perspective

Perspective is the position from which we observe situations, objects, facts, ideas and opinions. Perspective may be associated with individuals, groups, cultures or disciplines. Different perspectives often lead to multiple representations and interpretations.

Connections

Connections are links, bonds and relationships among people, objects, organisms or ideas.

Logic

Logic is a method of reasoning and a system of principles used to build arguments and reach conclusions.

Development

Development is the act or process of growth, progress or evolution, sometimes through iterative improvements.

Form

Form is the shape and underlying structure of an entity or piece of work, including its organization, essential nature and external appearance.
